MARCHAM PARISH COUNCIL NEWS
PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

New Council is formed

The term of office for the current Parish Council is coming to an end and a new Parish Council will be formed from the 4th day after the election (5th May) to serve for the next 4 years. There are 10 seats on the Council and 7 local people have been nominated to fill the seats. As the election is uncontested, no formal ballot is needed. Your new Parish Councillors will be:

Colin Bough 28 Kings Avenue
William Cumber Manor Farm, Mill Road
Malcolm Denton 10 Kings Avenue
Matthew Hillis 77 Howard Cornish Road
Ruth Mander 11 Orchard Way
Samantha Turney 20 Longfields
David Walton 19 The Farthings

Full contact details for the members, will be advertised on the Council's noticeboard once the first meeting of the new Council has taken place.

The following current Parish Councillors Jennifer Allan, Marjorie Evans, and Christine Ricketts have not put themselves forward for nomination. The Council wishes to express its thanks to them all for their efforts on the Council, and their work on behalf of the community over the last 4 years.

Vacancy on the Parish Council

As only 7 parishioners were nominated for 10 seats, there are 3 seats on the Council which remain to be filled. The Parish Council can proceed to co-opt someone within a statutory timescale.

The Parish Council maintains the children's play area, runs the allotments and Cemetery along with Frilford parish and is a consultee on planning applications and many local issues. It plays a vital part in representing the interests of the community which it serves and is an effective lobby group influencing the other decision makers. If anyone is interested in filling one of the vacant seats and joining the other members in helping improve community well-being, then please contact the Clerk as soon as possible.

District Council Elections

Did you know you can register with the District Council to receive the local election results by text message? Text the word ELECTIONS followed by a space and the number of the ward you would like results for to 07797 870371. The number for Marcham and Shippon is 221 and the number for all of the wards is 240. The numbers for other specific Vale wards, and for other information, see the noticeboard and Post Office window

Children in Roads

At the last meeting of the Council it was reported that children had been playing in certain roads around the village. The Council would remind parents of the dangers of the roads and would ask parents to encourage their children to walk on the pavements, and play in the recreation areas where it is safer.

Youth Shelter

Unfortunately there have been recent episodes of vandalism at the youth shelter and nearby litter bin in the Anson field. Would anyone seeing inappropriate behaviour in the area please report the matter to the Police on the non urgent number of 0845 8 505 505 or alternatively if you have information, particularly as to those responsible, you may prefer to contact crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Date of Next Council Meeting:

Wednesday 11 May 2011 at 7.30pm. in the residents' lounge, Duffield Place. This will be the first meeting of the new Council

He continued flying with the RAF until his retirement in 1976. His final posting was as the commanding officer of No 6 Air Experience Flight, based at RAF Abingdon.

Garford Parish Meeting
AGM
Tuesday 24 May

Garford Village Hall

Dear Editor

It has been a great pleasure talking to residents in Marcham and Shippon over the few weeks as I call door to door before the forthcoming District elections and referendum. Everyone is keen to see the community shop reopen and many have mentioned volunteering to me. Please do let Ruth Mander know. The working group has a lot of positive news to move forward, but need your help. I am really happy to have received so many positive comments about the Vale's new waste collection service as well as a few constructive suggestions for improvement.

The County Council have decided to undertake a review of bus services and as part of this are "consulting" with local communities. The 31 Bus Service is part of this review and I would urge you to register your views. I know it is a vital service especially for youngsters and the elderly as well as those who choose not to drive. You can post your comments online on the County Council's website or write to them at County Hall by June 4th 2011.

JANE HANNA, District Councillor

Dear Editor

THE INSTITUTE/COMMUNITY HALL

After reading both letters in the March MADNews from the Directors of the Anson Trust and the MCG, I would like to make the following comments:

I agree that the Institute is not adjacent to open space but is easily accessible via the path from the side of the Institute; therefore as previously stated this would give access to parking and the use of the Institute before and after activities on the Anson field.

The Institute has been used many times for village recreations and pastimes, such as weddings, theatre groups, pre-school groups, dancing, wakes, indoor aunt-sally, birthday parties, and possibly many more uses, without it being, as stated in the Anson Trust letter, too small.

The Trust also says the Institute 'does not have facilities the village wants to use'. At present this is possibly true; the Trust closed the hall losing income, and then did no maintenance.

The Institute requires being brought back into use. The Trust says that they do not have the money to do this work. In their 'Options for the Future of the Trust' they state that there is 'Money available in existing endowments' £200,000. (Pages 15 and 18) The estimated cost of refurbishment is £89,300.

In the Options for the Future of the Trust the Institute Car Park is mentioned as (.....currently required to improve the Institute...)

What ever happened to the 2004 development of six properties with individual parking plus a further 17 or 18 places for the use of the Institute? At the same time drawings were produced for demolition at the rear of the Institute, a new entrance on the side and a refurbishment of the front and all areas inside, all presumably paid for by the sale of the 6 house development
May 2011

In April's MADNews, Jane Hanna our District Councillor says in her letter on page 5 "I have been working with Vale officers and the Chair of Planning to ensure that significant funds released as a result of any development behind the Institute (Anson Trust's 2004 planning permission) will be used for the future provision of village facilities. My working group (established 4 years ago) also awaits news of any application upon which we can consult.

It appears that with the release of significant funds as stated by Jane Hanna, the money available in existing endowments, as mentioned in the Trust 'Options for the Future of the Trust and the income from the sale of development behind the Institute, there can be money available for the Anson Trust to do the right thing for the village.

Surely it is time that the Trust, the MCG, the NAF, the County Council, the users of the Anson Field and the Institute Small Hall all pulled in the same direction for the benefit of the whole community and its future?

Preserve and refurbish the Institute, gifted by the Anson sisters, and make it into THE MARCHAM COMMUNITY HALL, without the substantial expense of buying land and building in an area away from the centre of the village or the development of the Anson Field which will in its self create large problems for MARCHAM SCHOOL. If the Anson Trust go ahead and sell part of the field to developers to construct 47 affordable family homes, this will increase the demand for many more primary school child places at the school.

The school, as many of you may recall, struggled to allocate places to an intake of village children in 2008 (see MADNews edition April 2008, letters from Denise & Jim Asher, Rachel Gaisford and Chris Hillier). This year parents fear that with the expected demand the school will be unable to accommodate all the requests.

An increase of 47 houses could easily mean the possibility of an increase of 80 or more requests for primary school places at Marcham and this would surely mean without doubt that the school would be unable to accept all village children.

Prospective parents may also like to be reminded of the note that was issued in the April 2008 edition of the MADNews which states 'With no sibling at the school already - distance is determined by LA based on shortest public route (via roads, street and footpaths) and not as a crow flies'.

This will in turn make any development on the Anson Field the closest to the school (with the exception of Morland Road residents) and therefore give residents of the new build priority when allocating places by bridle way. This will then presumably result in village children having to travel out of the village for schooling.

BRIAN HARROW

Please can dog walkers on the Anson Field ensure that they use the special bins for the disposal of their dog waste. The green waste bins located near the SSSC and the children's play area are for the disposal of general waste only.

Dear Editor

Well done to the two young lads who politely and willingly helped me clean up litter strewn around the over-flowing bin by the play area on 21 April. They are a credit to their parents and Marcham school. Lovely idea to enjoy a picnic in the field during the warm spring weather. Even better idea, take the cans and packaging home again!

RECENT LITTER-PICKER

ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

It has been reported that underage drinking and inappropriate behaviour is taking place around the youth shelter. On the morning of the Litter Blitz copious number of bottles and cans were found scattered all over the Anson field. Youths have been seen urinating in the children's play area. The Sports and Social club has also been broken into and alcohol and sweets taken. This behaviour costs all of us money as the precept funds repairs and clearing up behind these individuals. As a village we must know who these people are and should have no issue in reporting them if they are causing any distress. Mothers have told us they will not take their children to the play area because of the activity taking place and this is a very sad situation that cannot be allowed to continue.

We have notified the police and they will be increasing their patrol activity but it is our village and if you as a resident see anything suspicious or you witness anti - social behaviour please report it to the police immediately on the following number 0845 8 505505. Just remember any damage caused in the village is personally costing you money via your council tax.

As parents do you know what your offspring are doing?

POLICE REPORT

There has been a spate of anti social behaviour (ASB) lately on the sports field in Marcham, with reports of drinking, urinating and groups generally being an annoyance to local residents. This will not be tolerated and such behaviour will be challenged. If groups do congregate please be mindful to residents and clear up any mess.

MCG—THE NEXT FEW MONTHS

Moving towards MCG's aim of new facilities for the local community requires a number of different steps.

The start was to set up a company, get a bank account, apply for registration for gift aid and set up a membership scheme. That done, we are now planning monthly or bi-monthly fundraising / awareness-raising events.

MCG is also in process of talking to all village organisations and we will be carrying out a house-to-house consultation in the late summer to ask for your views on what a new community facility should offer. Then we can refine the business plan, and start talking to architects and grant-giving bodies.

That's the framework. But it will take the whole community to turn it into a tangible result. Which is where YOU come in. A large membership and active local fundraising will be vital in showing grant-giving organisations that the project has significant local support.

So, if you support our aims and want the village to have a community-run hall join MCG (see right above), support MCG events, and tell your friends why they need to give their support too.

THEY ARE SMALL AND NOT MUCH USE TO YOU but would help MCG

MCG has started collecting 5p coins.

We have found that a number of people collect their small change in bowls because it is a nuisance to carry around. If you have such a bowl please bring your spare 5p coins to any MCG event.

SENIOR CITIZENS

At our last meeting we had a large table top and everyone was kept pretty busy serving or buying. This is one way of us all pulling together to boost our funds to pay the rent and running costs. Afterwards Dolly did her memory game, I think there was a bit of cheating going on but all in good fun so no harm done.

We had our first outing of this year on April 15th. A lunch outing to Burford followed by a visit to Lechlade Garden Centre. A lovely day and very enjoyable. Hope for more outings soon.

MARCHAM SOCIETY MIDWEEK WALK

Thursday, 12th May 2011.

This spring walk will explore some of the woods on Wytham Hill again, by special permission of the Conservator. As before we will meet at The White Hart in Wytham (Map Ref: SP 476087) at 12.30 for lunch or 1.30 for the walk. The route of nearly 5 miles, gives super views over Oxford and the Cotswolds, but does involve a climb from the village up to the top of the hill; hopefully the bluebells will be at their best. This time we will walk down to Swinford and complete the circuit along the Thames back to Wytham Members free, non-members £1. Ring Eric Dunford on 391439 for lifts and details.

LITTER BLITZ

On behalf of the Parish Council may I thank all the people who kindly gave up their time to give the village a spring clean on the 9th of April. Over 20 bags of rubbish were collected by a group of 20 people. It is a shame we have to do this but we seem to live in a society that just discards rubbish without any thought to the impact it has the village. Special thanks should go to one volunteer who went round the village specifically clearing up dog faeces and this could so easily be avoided if dog owners were responsible and cleared up after their pets. Surely it's not too much to ask?

COMMUNITY SHOP

Since the last edition of MADNews the working group have managed to secure the initial investment required to start the funding process. Our next move is to set up a registered company with 3 directors in order to move the project forward. Legal advice is being sought in order to carry out this task. A business plan has been prepared and forms the basis of our application for further funding. We are now in the process of applying to The Plunkett Foundation who specialise in funding Community Shops. We have also been encouraged by a good response of volunteers putting their names forward as helpers and we will obviously be seeking many more as the project comes to fruition.

SPRING

Just a short article this month as Spring has sprung and I am busy out in the garden, just like you all are no doubt, and struggling to find time to tap out my thoughts into the computer.

Two things are at the forefront of my mind, basically as I have been dealing with both issues today, and they are, failing Crown Imperial bulbs and controlling Chaffer Bugs.

Crown Imperials flower well in the first year of cultivation, but need work to get them to keep flowering. If grown well they have huge yellow or orange flowers, but poor flowering is almost always down to the fact they are in poor soil. They need deep, loose soil with copious volumes of organic matter, they like gritty, well-drained soil in a sunny place. They prefer alkaline soil but will grow in neutral soil too. If you want them to flower year after year, they must be planted about 1ft deep on a 5 inch layer of grit. When the shoots first appear it is also worth applying some grow more to help them along. Stick to these guidelines and the rest, as they say, is "Chicken Feed".

The other matter on my mind today as I say is Chaffer Bugs. They eat the root of grass, turning your lawn yellow and, if badgers and birds find them, they will dig up your lawn to get at these scrumptious morsels. These bugs can be controlled biologically by using nematode worms that you can buy via mail order or on the internet. The nematodes are mixed in water and applied direct to the lawn by drenching – almost flooding the infected area. After applying, to keep the nematodes effective the lawn must be kept moist for the rest of the growing season. If it dries out, the nematodes die.

Spring is great as the gardening starts in earnest, but so does the gardener's perennial fight against pest.

Happy Gardening,
STUART MABBUTT

ED VAIZEY WRITES

I'm writing this just after the Budget. One of the major issues that people contacted me about in the run up to the Budget was, of course, fuel duty.

Expensive petrol is an unfair burden on families; they need it for the school run, to get to work, and for even more basic needs if they live in a rural area like ours. The cost of running a family car has sky-rocketed in recent years, and the recent instability in the Middle East has caused leaps in the price of oil. However, the Chancellor has been able to make things a little easier by reducing the duty that the Government levies on fuel.

The last Government initiated a gradual rise in fuel duty called a fuel duty escalator, which has, so far, increased the price by 3p per litre; the next step was to add another 5p. This Budget has cancelled all escalator rises for the life of this Parliament and instead brought in a Fair Fuel Stabiliser. This will use a tax on the profits of oil production to freeze the duty on oil for a whole year, and even then only raise it in line with inflation.

The Chancellor has also decided to cut fuel duty, outright, by 1 penny per litre, and you should have already seen the effects of this in the petrol stations.

Another Budget measure that will help us in the constituency will be the cut in duty for low-alcohol beers. This will help out pubs that are hard pressed at the moment, especially in rural areas. The cut, which will help pub goers, comes with a rise in the duty on high-alcohol beers which will hurt binge drinkers who give responsible drinkers a bad name.

Finally, the Chancellor himself announced in the Budget speech that he will use some of the money from the Bank Levy to fund the new European Space Centre, based in Harwell, which is very good local news.

SCHOOL CAR WASH HELPS HEROES

At the end of last term the Year 4s in Morland Class were learning about finance. As part of this topic the children decided to raise some money for the charity Help for Heroes. The children decided to have a sponsored car wash. They washed staff cars on Friday 8 April and village cars on Sunday 10 April.

This is what Lucy Sharrock and Robyn Cotterel said about the Sunday car wash:

“On Sunday 10 April some of the year 4’s in Morland Class had a car wash at the school. We also sold some cakes and drinks. We were raising money for Help for Heroes. It was a sunny afternoon and we washed lots of cars and also had fun! From the two car washes we raised £157. We are very proud of ourselves and everyone enjoyed it.”

A very special ‘Thank you’ to Mrs J Kidd, who organised it with the children, and Mrs Capel for her support.

ABINGDON LITTLE ANGELS

Little Angels have been celebrating the Royal Wedding, by creating our very own Prince William and Kate, wedding invites to each other and designing our very own wedding dresses! We are all looking forward to the great occasion by having our very own street party in our garden the day before the wedding. The street party will be full of our own decorations, food and Little Angel-made memorabilia to commemorate the occasion!

We have also all been learning about Easter where we turned our summer house into a church with thanks to the Big Angels making our own crosses in woodwork activities in Holiday Club. Learning about Easter has brought lots of fun with Easter Egg hunt to making our very own last supper scene out of junk modelling!

For more information about the Angels Out of School Club please contact Helen or Kaye on 07516 474287 or at info@abingdonlittleangels.co.uk.

MARCHAM SOCIETY MEETING MARCH 2011

Our scheduled speaker this month was sadly taken ill, so at short notice Tony Hadland gave us an “Introduction to the Museums of Oxford” and a brief outline of his involvement with the Family History Society, The Vale and Downland Museum, and Pendon. There were once over 40 museums in Oxfordshire, and in pride of place was the oldest museum, The Ashmolean. Tony showed some slides of artefacts and described how there was a transfer procedure of items and even display cabinets between the county museums. The categories of Museums in Oxfordshire, are University, Transport, Town, Village and Others, the county store at Standlake is an “Other”. The museums are run by the University, Oxford County Council, various Town Councils, Learned Societies and one, Oxford Castle, is run by a commercial organisation. Tony also explained how funds could be raised from admissions, gifts and cafés but as a great many were free entry, they needed grants, benefactors and volunteers. He cited Henley River & Rowing Museum who had calculated an entrance charge of £20 to cover all their costs; however the admission was set from £6 to £8. Other museums like Wallingford are run entirely by volunteers. Museums always have far more exhibits than space to show them so artefacts have to be stored in facilities such as Standlake and Wroughton, but these also cost money. Bequeathed gifts should be checked with the museums to see if they can utilise the gifts! Oxford Museums Council publishes a guide to all the museums with their opening times and these are available at libraries, Tourist Offices etc. At the end of this very interesting insight into the Museums of Oxfordshire he took questions from the audience and was given a vote of thanks by Jim Asher.

Just a Moment

We know they are there, the fields, the trees
 And the river that flows 'neath the bridge in the town,
 But the longer one looks the less one sees,
 And we seldom stand on the bridge to look down.

 Maybe tomorrow we'll find time to gaze
 At the river and really admire the view,
 But not at this moment, one of these days,
 Today, we've other things to do.

 But it only takes a moment to pause for a space
 And really listen to the song of a bird,
 Or bring a smile to a worried face
 By making the time for a cheery word.

 It takes just a moment at the end of each day
 To reflect upon all we've seen and heard,
 The moments so quickly melt away,
 And time flies by like a startled bird.

GARD UPDATE: RESULT

The outcome contained in the Inspector’s Report following the Thames Water Plan Public Inquiry could not have much more satisfactory for GARD and all opponents of the reservoir.

The Secretary of State for DEFRA published the report by Inspector Wendy Burden on the Thames Water Plan on 1st March. She accepted the Inspector’s conclusions which were that the plan was not fit for purpose and did not meet the statutory requirements under the Water Industry Act. She said that the measures Thames Water proposed to adopt were not fully justified by the evidence the Company submitted. The massive reservoir proposal is therefore ruled out for the immediate future.

GARD has played a major part in opposing Thames Water’s flawed plan. At the Public Inquiry last summer GARD was represented by an outstanding QC, using the evidence of two nationally acknowledged expert water resources witnesses. Their evidence clearly demonstrated that the need for the reservoir had not been proved, and that if the need for a large additional water resource arose in future there were cheaper, quicker and less environmentally damaging alternatives to the reservoir which the company had not properly considered.

In addition to GARD’s evidence, the CPRE (Campaign to Protect Rural England), Oxfordshire County Council, the Vale of the White Horse District Council presented well prepared environmental cases against the plan, and the Environment Agency stated that the Thames Water demand figure was overstated by wrongly including assumed sustainability reductions (reduction in the permitted abstraction from the Thames for climate change and the environment).

GARD is most grateful for the support given by our local MPs, Ed Vaizey and Nicola Blackwood, other elected representatives including Iain Brown, and of course our members.

All Saints' and St. Luke's Parish Page

Dear Friends,

The month of May this year is a month of adventure for me, because I have the privilege of helping to lead two training conferences in Tanzania.

As you might imagine, my arms have felt like pin cushions for the past two months with all the necessary vaccinations needed for rural Africa! Hopefully all is now in place for the big adventure, and I am really looking forward to the trip.

One of the pieces of advice I have been given is a warning about the culture shock I am likely to experience. A very different culture, a very different life-style and with people whose whole experience of life is vastly different from my own. But one thing we do have in common – a living faith in a big God – in Jesus, in the Holy Spirit, in the love and care of God the Father. This faith is expressed in joy-filled song, with typical African rhythm and exuberance!

However, culture shock is something we can experience even in our own society – when we explore areas of life that are new to us, when we meet people from backgrounds that differ from our own etc. There can even be a sense of culture shock when we enter the world of church and faith – not irrelevant, simply different, 'seeing' through a different perspective. The Christian 'sees' a world in which God is central, through whom it all makes sense – the pieces fit together, rather than simply an apparently random chaos.

In the church calendar May is bathed in the light of the resurrection of Jesus, a time of celebration and of anticipation of Pentecost – a wonderful season of light, new life, and living hope! Enjoy the adventure!

With my warmest best wishes,
Revd Richard Zair

Prayer for the Month:

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for the joy of the resurrection of Jesus, the wonder of new life and the living hope He gives us. Help us to enjoy the adventure of faith, knowing You are with us, there to guide, to resource, to comfort – our ever-present Companion. Please be close to those who are struggling with life's pressures at the moment, to those travelling the hard path of illness, and those in the valley of grief and bereavement. May each one know Your presence and peace.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

Discipleship

Almighty God,

we give you thanks for your Son, Jesus Christ,

who was baptised in the River Jordan and passed through the deep waters of death.

We praise you that you raised him to life and exalted him.

Help us to follow in his way

as disciples and faithful servants of his gospel.

By your grace, help us,

that being united with him,

we continually die to sin

and live to your praise and glory
